50X1-HUM

1. In November 1951, there was a strike of the workers employed at the former Malaxa works in Bucharest. It is reported that another strike was held simultaneously at the Bucharest Streetcar Company (STB) repair shops. 50X1-HUM

2.

3. On Christmas Eve 1951, an attempt at sabotage was detected and rendered harmless at the government-operated shop Textila in Obor. One of the shoppers in the store noticed that there was smoke emerging from a suitcase which had been placed in the center of the Textile store. He called this to the attention of one of the clerks, who seized the suitcase and threw it into the street outside the shop. The suitcase reportedly exploded on making contact with the sidewalk and injured a number of pedestrians. The perpetrator of the sabotage attempt was not discovered.
